For all of us, there comes a time when the choices are so stark, the risks so great, we have to take a stand. We can no longer assume someone else will save us. We have to step forward and be counted.

We face such a time today. If we don't take a stand against the coming Democratic tsunami, the country we know and love today will be lost.

I believe the Democrats when they say they plan to double our taxes. I believe them when they guarantee they will rewrite federal labor law so unions can reorganize the workforce without a secret ballot election. I believe them when they promise the trial bar they will strip away what few rights companies still have. I believe them when they say they are going to appoint liberal judges to the Supreme Court and swamp our federal benches all over the land. I believe them and so should you!

When the next President is sworn in, 6 of the 9 Supreme Court Justices will be over 70 years old. This could mean the next President could seat a new majority to the court.

And, I believe them when they vow to spend close to $100 million dollars to elect a super majority in the Senate, a majority so big that the Senate will no longer be our nation's legislative firewall.

Just this week, the Senator in charge of raising money to get Democratic Senators elected said they are going to pickup nine seats in the US Senate. Nine seats! Do you know what that would mean! That would mean they could pass every piece of their liberal agenda through the House and the Senate untouched! There would not be a tax they could not raise or a freedom they could not abridge.

And you know, there is nothing they won't say, nothing they won't do to win. Presidential hopeful Barak Obama has already raised millions to win the Presidency and he has now decided to raise funds for Democrats in the House. Just last week he wrote a letter to Democrats around the country asking them to pour money into the House Democrat money machine.

All we Republicans can count on is ourselves. We either stand together, we either support our Senate candidates, or we are lost.

I am doing all I can to ensure the Democrats don't have a super-majority. You need to do all you can to help.

Ask yourself - what is it worth to keep what I earn? \$25, \$50, 75?

What is freedom worth? \$100, \$250, \$500, \$1,000?

What is my country worth?

Join me. Help our Republican Senate candidates withstand the coming storm. Help keep America free. Take a stand. Don't let Barak Obama and Chuck Schumer decide what this country is going to look like. Make a contribution, and together, let's save our country.

Can I count on you?

Don't let me down!

Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours,
