

Dear MoveOn member,

Did you hear NPR this morning? They released a new poll showing that in the top 50 House races, voters choose Democrats over Republicans by a big margin.

There's a wave of change poised to sweep the nation, but to make that a reality, we've got to act, together, now. As we wrote yesterday, our people-powered "Call for Change" election program is ready to start turning out voters. To do it in all of the competitive races, we need to complete the first phase of funding this week.

So far 5,915 of you chipped in—a tremendous outpouring of support. Now we need 4,085 people to put us over the top. Can you sign up to contribute $15 monthly until the Election? Click the link.

The NPR poll and story had other good news.<sup>1</sup>

- In 2004, these districts went for Republicans by 12 points but now voters favor the Democrat by about 6 points—a huge swing.
- On "values issues" that the Republicans have cynically been pushing in Congress—like stem cell research, flag-burning and gay marriage—Democrats prevail by their biggest margin in the entire poll: 51 to 37.
- Only a basement bottom 29 percent say they will definitely or probably vote to re-elect their incumbent representative and 46 percent say they're committed to someone else.

Waiting until October won't cut it this year. We have to lock-in this big shift in public opinion now. And this big shift means that running a big program is critical to taking back Congress.

We can make a difference together if we each chip in just a little.

Thanks for all you do.

P.S. Missed yesterday's e-mail?

"Call for Change" is an ambitious get-out-the-vote plan (GOTV). Through Call for Change, MoveOn members will make more than 5 million phone calls to voters in 30 highly competitive House districts plus key Senate races.

We'll combine the energy of 3 million MoveOn members with new technology and cutting edge "microtargeting" techniques that have made Republican turnout efforts successful in recent years.

And to get rolling, we'll deploy 100 skilled field organizers around the country to help our volunteer leaders recruit and support other MoveOn members in their area
